"It's hard to imagine a more outstanding showing by New York-bred horses last year and we expect this amazing group of stallions to give New York Sire Stakes participants every chance to build on that success," said M. Kelly Young, executive director, Agriculture & New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund. "New York breeders know they have the backing of a strong state-bred program when marketing their yearlings, and those with resident mares have the potential to earn Breeders Award earnings at the finish of the season."

Hard copies of the Stallion Directory are available through the Fund upon request. Those interested are asked to contact the office at 518-388-0178 or info@nysirstakes.com.

The racing schedule and updated conditions for the 2019 New York Sire Stakes racing season are available at www.nysirstakes.com. The NYSS "Night of Champions" will be held Saturday, Sept. 14, at Batavia Downs
